

Online Professional Development

A Free Online Course, Supporting Children with Difficulties in Reading and Writing, is being offered jointly by the University of London, UCL Institute of Education and Dyslexia International, as part of the MOOC program (Massive Online Open Course).

This course is for teachers to learn why some children have so much difficulty with reading and writing, often called 'dyslexia', and to learn more about best practice in teaching literacy to all in light of recent scientific discoveries.

This open course is offered online and free to the public. You can choose to have your learning certified through a certificate if you wish (for minimal cost), but this is optional. The learning activities associated with this course are of high quality and will be of value to parents, teachers and consultants.
